

International Career Development Conference
April 21 – 25, 2007
Orlando, Florida

More than 1,300 college students across the nation competed at the 2007 Delta Epsilon Chi International Career Development Conference on April 21-25, 2007 in Orlando, Florida. The following students earned international recognition in their respective competitive events.

Apparel and Accessories

1st – Jill Dudley, Columbia College

Financial Services

Top 10 – Travis Owens, Lincoln University

Marketing Management

2nd – Deborah Hendrix, Missouri Southern State University

Top 10 – Lauren Benney, Southeast Missouri State University

Restaurant & Food Service

2nd – Lauren Akins, Southeast Missouri State University

Retail Management

Top 10 - Lindsey Lawrence, Lincoln University

Travel and Tourism Marketing

Top 10 – Trisha Brown, Lincoln University

Top 10 – Angela Hof, Southeast Missouri State University

Web Site Development

Top 10 – David Jolly and Tyler Schnaidt, University of Missouri-Columbia

These students will be recognized at the 11th Annual Excellence in Marketing Education reception at the Governor's Mansion on May 25, 2007 at 2:00 p.m.

Missouri was represented by 44 students and eight advisors from eight post-secondary institutions.

For more information, contact Christopher Young, State Advisor, at (573) 751-4367 or Christopher.Young@dese.mo.gov.