Dress and Conduct Code

Members' behavior reflects on the image of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. Student conduct should make a positive contribution to the excellent reputation already established. The following conduct applies to all student participants:

Behavior at all times should be such that it reflects credit to you, your school, your state and FCCLA. Student conduct is the responsibility of the local chapter advisor. Students are expected to take part in all sessions. Any accidents, injuries or illnesses should be reported to the local or state advisor immediately. All students will observe the 11:00 p.m. curfew. If a student is found responsible for stealing or vandalism, the student and his/her parents will be expected to pay all damages. Students attending the Access FCCLA Conferences may not purchase, possess, consume or be under the influence of alcohol or drugs at any time. Smoking is not allowed. Students who disregard the rules will be subject to disciplinary action and may be sent home at their own expense. Parents/guardians will be notified. Please silence all cell phones or electronic devices during sessions. Please give the speakers your attention throughout the event - this means no texting.
