

APPLICATION FOR
ASSISTANT TO THE STATE ADVISOR
NATIONAL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

All current Missouri Alumni & Associates members are eligible to apply for the position of assistant to the state advisor during the National Leadership Conference. This position has been created to not only provide the state advisor with much needed assistance during the national leadership conference, but to also allow an active A&A member to provide support to the state association.

Those eligible to be chosen for this position must:

1. Be a current, dues-paying Missouri Alumni & Associate member
2. Have no other responsibilities during the national leadership conference
3. Be directly responsible to and closely work with the state advisor to:
 - Assist in group tours
 - Assist STAR Events participants as needed
 - Assist State Officers as needed
 - Handle/assist with emergencies as they arise
 - Attend any Alumni & Associates activities during National Leadership Conference
 - Other responsibilities as assigned
4. Meet all application deadlines.
5. Provide for all meal, tips and spending money. Airfare, lodging, registration and tour options will be paid for by Missouri Alumni & Associates and Missouri Family Career and Community Leaders of America.

Previous experience at a National Leadership Conference is not required, but will be considered. The assistant to the state advisor will be someone who is willing to accept great responsibility, is a quick thinker, gets along well with others, and is able to follow through with all duties.

All applications must be sent by the postmark deadline of April 15 to Christine Hollingsworth at the state office.
