

Missouri Business Education Association (MBEA) Application for New Professionals Stipend

Are you a business education new professional with three or fewer years of teaching experience or the MBEA student representative? Are you a member of MBEA who has never attended a MBEA Summer Conference, but are interested in professional development, networking with other teachers, and learning a few new tricks of the trade? If you answered yes to these questions, you should apply for a MBEA New Professionals Stipend to help defer your expenses to the MBEA Summer Conference.

Five applicants will be selected to receive stipends in the amount of $100 each. Checks will be presented to the selected applicants at the closing session of the MBEA Summer Conference. Selected applicants must be present at the closing session or the stipend will be presented to an alternate. Application forms may be obtained from the Division of Career Education website at <http://dese.mo.gov/divcareered/forms.htm#mbea>. Applications must be postmarked by June 15, 2011. Mail applications to: Kari Lemings, Chairperson, New Professionals Committee, Holcomb High School, P O Box 190, Holcomb, MO 63852 or e-mail: klemings@holcomb.k12.mo.us.
