Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What are the goals that lead to learner success?

Engagement (Hook):

Have you ever heard the expression “talk is cheap,” or “put your money where your mouth is?” Do you know the name of the famous story that tells about a tortoise that asked a rabbit to put his money where his mouth was?

Procedures

Instructor Procedures: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Counselor will say, “Have you ever heard the expression “talk is cheap” or “Put your money where your mouth is?” The counselor will explain the expressions or ask students to explain. 2. Do you know the name of the famous story that tells about a tortoise who asked a rabbit to put his money where his mouth was? 3. Counselor will read the story to the students. 4. Counselor will ask the following discussion questions. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Have you ever decided that you wanted to do something that might take a lot of time and practice? You may have said to yourself, “I want to ride my bike by the time school starts.” We call that setting a goal. 	Student Involvement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students share ideas and participate in discussion about the two expressions. 2. Students will say, “The Tortoise and the Hare.” 3. Students will listen to the story and look at the pictures. 4. b. What was the goal of the Tortoise in the story? What was the goal of the Hare in the story? It sounds to me as if you are saying that they both had the same goal. c. Why do you think the Tortoise accomplished his goal and the Hare did not? d. Yes. That's right. Do you think the Hare had a plan to win the race? Do you think he practiced for the race? e. Do you think the Tortoise had a plan for the race? What do you think his plan was? f. If you were planning on winning a race, what would your plan be? How would you plan to accomplish your goal of winning the race? 5. The counselor asks students to brainstorm words that helped the Tortoise accomplish his goal. The counselor will write the words on chart paper and save it and give the words to the teacher to help reinforce in the classroom. 6. The counselor and students will review the concept of goal setting and share the key points of the discussion. During the next lesson students will complete the Talk is Cheap Activity Sheet.	b. Students might say, "To win the race." Students might say, "To win the race." c. Students might say because the Hare stopped before the race was over. d. The students might say, "No." e. The students might say, "Slow and steady wins the race." f. The students might say, "I'd get a lot of sleep, and eat my breakfast, and practice running everyday." 5. The students will brainstorm ideas. 6. The students will participate in the review of discussion.
