ItemDEPARTMENT GOAL NO. 3:

Missouri will prepare, develop, and support effective educators.

SUMMARY:

Francelle D. Barry, Respondent, held a Substitute Certificate of license to teach, which had expired. She applied for a new Substitute Certificate, but was denied because she had allegedly provided false information by not revealing the suspended imposition of sentence she received upon completion of probation to misdemeanor identity theft.

Respondent was present at the hearing, but was not represented by counsel.

PRESENTER(S):

Department legal counsel will participate in the presentation and discussion of this agenda item.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the State Board of Education take no action against Respondent's teaching certificate or claim of certification held by her.
