Missouri Association

We are the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America.

We face the future with warm courage and high hope.

For we have the clear consciousness of seeking old and precious values.

For we are the builders of homes, Homes for America's future, Homes where living will be the expression of everything that is good and fair, Homes where truth and love and security and faith will be realities, not dreams.

We are the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America.

We face the future with warm courage and high hope.

General Information

Lost and found items can be dropped off at the conference headquarters room, located in the Executive Board Room.

Hotel security and staff has been made aware of the curfew times for the conference. Be sure you follow this so that you have plenty of energy for the conference sessions. Please be considerate of your fellow hotel guests.

Please refrain from taking pictures during the general sessions. Program participants will remain near the stage area following sessions for photos, if desired.

Please turn off or silence all cell phones during the general sessions, STAR Events or conference workshops. We appreciate your respectful attention to the session presenters.

Keep conversations to a minimum during sessions and workshops and do not enter a workshop late or leave a workshop early if at all possible.

Name Tags and Ribbons

Please wear your name tag at all times during the conference, as it is your admission to general sessions and workshops. If you are a voting delegate, you must attend the Meet the Candidates session and have your voting delegate ribbon in order to cast your chapter's vote. Voting delegate ribbons and chapter award ribbons were placed in the chapter advisor packets. Recognition ribbons were distributed to all chapters that qualified for special recognition by membership or submission of award or other recognition applications.

Dress Code

Approved by the State Executive Council (July 2014)

Members and advisors of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America are representing an outstanding student organization and should project the image of a leader. One of the purposes of FCCLA is: "To prepare for the multiple roles of men and women in today's society." Therefore, an important part of the educational experiences provided by FCCLA includes developing an understanding of appropriate behavior and dress for business meetings and functions. Demonstrating a professional image, extending courtesies, and acting in a professional manner will lead to a pleasant and rewarding meeting experience. Members, advisors, and guests should follow the guidelines listed below when attending FCCLA events.

CONFERENCE ATTIRE is required at the State Leadership Conference, workshops and STAR Events recognition. The FCCLA official blazer is always appropriate and strongly encouraged, although not required (unless otherwise noted). Athletic shoes and sandals are not allowed.

Females

- Red, black, or white polo or oxford shirt (long or short sleeves). Shirts must be opaque
- Black dress slacks or khaki pants (no capris, Bermuda's, shorts, leggings, jeggings, or denim of any color)
- Black or khaki skirts – no shorter than 2 inches above the knee
- Dress shoes or sandals (no plastic-type shoes including non-dressy flip flops or beach sandals)
- Jeans, t-shirts*, and athletic wear are NOT permitted (*see exception below)

Males

- Red, black, or white polo or oxford shirt (long or short sleeves)
- Black dress slacks or khaki pants (no shorts)
- Dress shoes
- Jeans, t-shirts*, athletic wear are NOT included (*see exception below)

* State Leadership Conference T-shirt: The official State Leadership Conference t-shirt may be worn with black dress slacks/skirts or khaki pants/skirts instead of the polo or oxford shirt on Tuesday, the last day of the state conference.

State Officers: The official FCCLA uniform is required at regional, state, and national events, unless otherwise indicated.

STAR Events Participants: Follow event specifications for dress, and wear appropriate clothing for the nature of the presentation.

Advisors: Conference attire as stated above or professional classroom attire is required. Jeans, t-shirts, and athletic wear are NOT permitted. Advisors are responsible for the students wearing the appropriate clothing when attending FCCLA events.

INAPPROPRIATE ATTIRE

The following inappropriate attire should not be worn to any FCCLA activity, including in the hotel hallways and lobby:

- Clothing and accessories which are sexually suggestive, which advertise weapons, drugs, alcohol, or tobacco products; promote violence, gang symbols, or display profanity
- See-through, tight fitting, extremely baggy, spaghetti straps, strapless, extremely short, or lowcut blouses/tops/dresses/skirts
- Spandex, stirrup pants, leotards, short shorts or skirts, cutoffs, pajamas
- Pants or skirts which are worn below the hip bone; no undergarments may be showing
- Clothing which is stained, ragged, torn, cut apart, or ripped
- Bath/bedroom slippers; athletic shoes or flip-flops (except with casual or pool attire)
- Bare feet
- Visible body piercing (with the exception of ears)
- Visible tattoos

CASUAL ATTIRE is allowed for travel to and from FCCLA functions, recreational tours, theme parks, FCCLA dances, and similar casual activities.

Females and Males

- Longer-length shorts (no short shorts; must be past your fingertips) or neat jeans (no holes)
- Collared shirts, sweat shirts or appropriate t-shirts, including the official state conference t-shirt
- Casual footwear

PROPER DRESS CODE STYLE

The following pictures properly display the correct way to wear the Conference Attire.
