Section 1. State Organization

The Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is a state organization for any student who is taking or has taken a course in family and consumer sciences education as determined by the state department of education through grade 12 in public and private schools. It is composed of local chapters chartered by the state and national associations and affiliated for the current year through payment of dues (refer to dues deadline, Article IX, Section 1), and meeting other requirements of the bylaws.

Section 2. Regional Organizations

The Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America shall have regional organizations. The number of designated regions is subject to revision by the state supervisory staff in the approval of the Board of Directors. Borderline chapters may petition the state advisor to be transferred to another region.

Section 3. Chapters

- A. Affiliated Chapters. A chapter may be affiliated in public and private schools in which family and consumer sciences instruction is offered. The chapter shall be composed of students possessing the qualifications for membership.
- B. Organization. A chapter may be organized whenever, in the judgment of the teachers, students and administrators, it would be advantageous to do so.

Section 4. Newly Affiliated Chapters

New chapters in middle schools, junior and/or senior high schools may become members of the regional, state and national association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America by submitting an official affiliation roster and the appropriate state, national and regional dues. Newly affiliated chapters shall submit a copy of chapter bylaws, names of chapter officers and the name of the advisor to the regional parliamentarian for review of compliance with regional, state and national bylaws.

Section 5. Membership Qualifications

- A. Active Membership. Any student who is taking or has taken a course determined by the state department of education as comprehensive or occupational family and consumer sciences through grade 12 shall be eligible for active membership in an organized chapter within the school. Active members shall be eligible to hold office, make motions and vote.
- B. Alumni & Associates Membership. Former active members and other adults who share the goals and purposes of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America and its programs and who wish to support the continuing development of FCCLA youth shall be eligible for Alumni & Associate membership. Members of Alumni & Associates shall not be eligible to hold office, make motions or vote.
- C. Honorary Membership. Any individuals whose professional responsibilities are not directly related to Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, who have made outstanding contributions and who are giving continued service to the state national organization by advancing its purposes, are eligible for honorary membership in the state and national organization. Honorary members have the privilege of attending all meetings of the organization, but have no vote.

ARTICLE VI

Elections

Section 1. Election of Officers

- A. Election of regional and state officers and national officer candidate(s) shall be conducted annually within each region by a date determined by the State Executive Council with approval of the state advisor. Any active member of a chapter affiliated with the regional, state and national associations is eligible to be a candidate (See Article V).
- B. Each region shall be represented on the State Executive Council every year by an officer, provided there is an interested and qualified member within the region to fill the vacancy. Each region shall elect a state officer designated as state officer candidate. Any elected state officer candidate may be a candidate for the office of state president or national officer candidate.
- D. The candidate must wear conference or professional attire as stated in the approved dress code, while running for a regional, state or national office. State officer candidates, who are outgoing State Executive Council members and wish to be elected to a second term, cannot wear the official state officer uniform during the nominating committee interview process and the Meet the Candidates session.

- E. The distribution of campaign materials shall be forbidden. This includes, but is not limited to business cards, fliers, posters, verbal word of mouth and any material that would give the candidate an unfair advantage. Also, it is the candidate's responsibility to keep all social networking sites free of any information pertaining to elections (See State Campaigning Policy).
- F. The number of voting delegates from each affiliated chapter shall be as follows:
  - 1 to 49 members – 1 vote
  - 50 to 99 members – 2 votes
  - 100 to 199 members – 3 votes
  - 200 or more – 4 votes

No chapter may cast more than four votes.

Section 2. Election of the State Executive Council

- A. Each regional association may elect one representative, to represent his or her region as a state officer candidate. The state officer candidate may seek the office of state president or national officer candidate. His or her office will be determined at the upcoming State Leadership Conference. Until the representative's office is determined at the State Leadership Conference, the representative will be known as a state officer candidate.
- B. A nominating committee shall be appointed by the state advisor, composed of no more than five members, including alumni and educators, with input by the State Executive Council. The committee will be chaired by an outgoing State Executive Council member who is chosen by the State Executive Council.
- C. The nominating committee will nominate up to six candidates, who may seek the office of state president, state 1st vice president, or national officer candidate. The state officer candidates can deny a nomination and will become a state vice president. The remaining eight state officer candidates then become state vice presidents, until their titles are determined.
- D. The top six candidates will be introduced to the voting delegates in the Meet the Candidates session. The candidates will answer an ice-breaker question, give a two-minute speech on a topic given by the State Executive Council, and answer a situation-based question. Voting delegates will vote for their choice of state president and national officer candidate(s).
- E. The state president candidate with the highest number of votes will receive the office of state president, and the state president candidate with the second highest number of votes will receive the office of state 1st vice president.
- F. The national officer candidate(s) with the highest number of votes will be selected as Missouri's national officer candidate(s).
- G. State Executive Council members shall serve a term of one year beginning and ending their duties at consecutive State Leadership Conferences.
- H. An officer can be deposed from office only by following the procedures in Robert's Rule of Order, Revised Edition, in dealing with officer offenses. That is, an investigating committee must be appointed, must prefer charges, and a formal trial must be held.

Section 3. Election of Regional Executive Council

- A. Any active member of a chapter affiliated with the regional, state and national levels is eligible to be a candidate for a regional office if the qualifications are met as stated in the bylaws (See Article V, Section 7).
- B. Regional officers shall serve a term of one year beginning and ending their duties with consecutive regional installations.
- C. Regional associations will follow the regional elections procedures as determined by the State Executive Council.

Section 4. Vacancies

- A. State officer candidates may deny the office received, if so wished.
- B. If only one national officer candidate is elected, the office of state vice president of scholarships will be added to the State Executive Council for the term. If the offices of both national officer candidates are vacant, the offices of state vice president of scholarships and state vice president of parliamentary law will be added to the State Executive Council for the term.
- C. If the office of state president should become vacant after the annual election, the state 1st vice president shall serve. If any other state office becomes vacant during the first half of the year, the first runner-up may fill the office. If the first runner-up cannot accept the office, the replacement will be named by the State Executive Council. If the vacancy occurs during the last half of the term, the office shall remain vacant and the other officers will assume those duties.
- D. Vacancies at regional and chapter levels shall be filled in accordance with their respective bylaws.

ARTICLE VII
Meetings

Section 1. State Executive Council

The State Executive Council of the Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America shall meet as soon as feasible following the annual election to make plans for the year's work. The state advisor shall determine when this meeting will be held. Other meetings may be scheduled as needed.

Section 2. State Leadership Conference

Section 3. Regional Meetings

Regional meetings of the Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America shall be held annually in the fall. The time and place of the meeting shall be determined by the Regional Executive Council with the approval of the regional advisor and the state advisor.

Section 4. Local Chapters

Local chapters shall be organized as an integral part of the family and consumer sciences instruction program. Meetings and other activities shall be organized and conducted according to the local options and needs.

Section 5. Governing Rules

The rules found in Robert's Rules of Order, Revised Edition, shall govern the association in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are in agreement with the bylaws.

Section 6. Regular or Special Meetings

Regular or special meetings of the State Executive Council and designated committees may be held by electronic means (such as email, Internet communication platforms, telephone conferences, video conferences, etc.) subject to the following:

- A. A quorum must be met to conduct the electronic meeting.
- B. The technology used for the electronic meetings shall allow the members full access to and full participation in all meeting transactions either continuously or intermittently throughout the specified time for the meeting.
- C. The affirmative vote of majority of the quorum shall be the minimum vote requirement for the adoption of any motion.
- D. Procedural rules related to the conduct of electronic meetings shall be established and published by the state advisor.

ARTICLE VIII
Board of Directors

Section 1. Directors

The State Vocational Family and Consumer Sciences Education Advisory Committee shall serve as the Board of Directors of the Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America.

Section 2. Responsibilities

The Board of Directors is the governing authority. The committee reviews the policies and procedures suggested by the State Executive Council, helps administer the policies and procedures and consults with local chapter advisors about the business of the Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America.

Section 3. State Association Representation

The State Vocational Family and Consumer Sciences Education Advisory Committee will have representation from the state association as stated in the committee's bylaws.

ARTICLE IX
Dues and Finances

Section 1. State Dues

Membership dues in the Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America shall be fixed by the State Executive Council on the basis of a budget submitted and approved by the majority present at the annual Executive Council Meeting. Change in state dues is subject to a majority vote of delegates at the annual business meeting held during the State Leadership Conference. The fiscal year for the Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America shall be September 1 to August 31. Affiliation due dates will be set as deemed necessary by the State Executive Council. These dates will be announced in the fall mailing from the state advisor. Any chapters submitting candidates for regional, state and national officers must affiliate in accordance to the date stated in the fall mailing.

Section 2. Regional Dues

The dues of any region shall be fixed by the Regional Executive Council on the basis of a budget submitted and approved by the majority present at the Regional Executive Council Meeting. Change in regional dues is subject to a majority vote of delegates at the annual regional business meeting.

Section 3. Chapter Dues

The dues of any chapter shall be fixed by the Chapter Executive Council subject to a majority vote of the membership of the chapter.

Section 4. Financial Statement

The financial statement of the state association showing all income and expenditures shall be prepared by the state advisor and audited annually by a qualified person.

ARTICLE X
Disbursement

Expenses for meetings of the State Executive Council and other necessary state association expenses shall be paid from the State FCCLA Treasury on the approval of the state advisor based on sound fiscal policies.

ARTICLE XI
Dissolution or Liquidation

Upon final dissolution or liquidation of the Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America and after the discharge or satisfaction of all outstanding obligations and liabilities, the remaining assets of the state association shall be used by the Board of Directors in accordance with the purposes of the national organization or be transferred to a qualified exempt organization within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

ARTICLE XII
Scholarships

Section 1. Scholarships

The Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America shall award scholarships annually to outstanding FCCLA members meeting specific scholarship criteria and planning to enroll in an accredited institution. There will be two scholarships awarded. One shall be awarded to a member planning to major in a degree program in family and consumer sciences or family and consumer sciences education. The other shall be awarded to a member who has exhibited outstanding leadership and participation in FCCLA programs and activities, regardless of the degree program chosen. Recipients enrolled in a program leading to a Bachelor's degree will receive a four-year scholarship. Recipients enrolled in a program leading to an Associate's degree will receive a two-year scholarship.

Section 2. Financial Support

Funds to finance the scholarships shall be obtained from the state association treasury annually and from any additional contributions.

Section 3. Scholarships Awarded

At least two scholarships will be awarded annually. The amounts will be determined by the State Executive Council and will depend upon availability of funds and applications submitted.

Section 4. Selection Procedure

- A. The scholarship screening committee in consultation with the state advisor shall determine at the time of screening if more than two scholarships will be awarded and the type to be awarded based on qualifications of applicants and availability of funds.
- B. Scholarship criteria shall be formulated by a scholarship committee with consultation and approval of the State Executive Council. The scholarship committee shall be appointed by the state advisor. The committee shall review and update the scholarship criteria periodically as needed.

ARTICLE XIII Amendments

These bylaws may be amended by two-thirds vote of the ballots cast by the affiliated chapters under the following rules:

- A. Amendments may be submitted in writing to the state advisor by any chapter, regional or state committee for review by the State Executive Council.
- B. The State Executive Council shall review and assemble the proposed changes from all chapters in the state and submit them to a committee appointed by the state president in consultation with the state advisor.
- C. Recommendations of the committee shall be presented to the State Executive Council and the state advisor.
- D. The state advisor with the State Executive Council may propose further amendments.
- E. The state advisor shall submit proposed amendments by mail or electronic means to the chapters at least 30 days prior to voting.
- F. Voting on the bylaws may be conducted by mail or at the assembly of delegates at the annual State Leadership Conference.
- G. Allow the state advisor with approval of the State Executive Council to make editorial or conforming language changes to the bylaws.
