Pitfalls

Student 1: What's the matter with you?

Student 2 (crying): My whole life is ruined! I just found out I may not get accepted into the school I want!

Student 1: Geez, what happened?

Student 2: Well, it seems that the school I want to go to expects me to have already taken algebra, algebra II, geometry, calculus and trigonometry...in high school!

Student 3: Hey! I know you're an excellent student. I sat behind you in geometry. I don't think you ever missed a single problem.

Student 2: Yeah, well that's after I woke up. I didn't do very well in sixth grade, so I was put in 7th grade math instead of pre-algebra...and that meant I had to take pre-algebra as an 8th grader...and so on! Next year, as a senior I will be one class behind to meet my career goal. Ugh!

Student 3: Well, all may not be lost. Sure, it would have been better if you had planned it all out, but according to the counselor there are other options. It might be as simple as just having to take a dual-enrollment class next year.

Student 2: Really?

Student 3: Well, you'd better ask the counselor, but I think it would work. Now if I had as easy a solution to my problem.

Student 1: What's the matter with you?

Student 3: Well, I would be earning all sorts of honors in vocational agriculture if I had entered the program as a freshman. Now, like her, I'm behind. I never thought it would make that much difference. I'll do well, but I could have done better if I had planned it all out ahead.

Student 1: Looks like planning is very important—kind of like Lewis & Clark as they made their way across the United States. Do you think they just started out every day of the expedition not knowing what course they would take.....just seeing where they happened to end up?

Student 2: I'm telling all my younger cousins and my little sister that planning is essential....and that what you do in middle school really can effect high school...even college!

Student 3: Well, don't forget to tell them to ask a counselor if in doubt. I've heard they're good at helping kids find their way.

Student 2: Oh don't worry...in fact I'm headed to see the counselor right now!
Dual enrollment, huh?.....
