Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:
The student will compare and contrast the roles and responsibilities of two careers by using a graphic organizer.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):
Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
The students will gather information about the roles, responsibilities, skills and training and education requirements of workers. The information gathered will be placed in a graphic organizer chart and then analyzed (during lesson 2) to identify the similarities and differences in the careers. Within each team, members will analyze the information each member gathered to identify similarities and differences of the roles, responsibilities, skills and post-secondary education and present it on a T chart (Activity sheet 2).

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: How do training and skills affect a person’s roles and responsibilities in the community?

Engagement (Hook):
Copy the resource, Career Path Strips. Cut the strips apart, and put the strips into the Magic Hat or box, or write the names of the Career Paths along with examples of careers in each path on slips of paper and place into a hat or box. Tell students that magic can happen when people find the work they enjoy. Then, wave your magic wand with great enthusiasm and say: “Hocus Pocus, what career path am I in today?” Pull one Career Path slip out of the hat or box. Example: “Hi! My name is Chris Carpenter. I work for Carpentry, Inc. I make cabinets, install them, and fix wooden furniture. I follow plans and blueprints. I build safe and durable products.” Pull Tony Teacher’s slip out of the hat/box. How are Tony Teacher’s roles and responsibilities different?

<td>NOTE: For this strategy, you will need display or project the Career Graphic Organizer.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. After the “hook,” encourage students to respond. Discuss with the class the similarities and differences between Tony Teacher’s career and Chris Carpenter’s career. List the responses on the Career</td>

Graphic Organizer on display. Begin with Tony Teacher as Career One and list her Roles, Responsibilities, Skills, and Training and Education; Repeat process with Chris Carpenter. After completing the list ask students to talk with a partner to identify the similarities in Chris’ and Tony’s roles, responsibilities, skills and necessary training and education.

2. Tell students that the task in this Unit is to compare and contrast roles, responsibilities, skills and training/education of different careers. What does “compare” mean? What does contrast mean? What does compare and contrast mean? Today we will be comparing and contrasting the roles and responsibilities of two careers.

3. Remind students that roles and responsibilities may be similar or different depending upon the careers. Are there similarities that all occupations have in common? Are there ways specific occupations are different from all other occupations?

4. Divide the class into six groups. Distribute the names of 2 career paths and the activity sheet Career Graphic Organizer to each group. As you are distributing the materials to each group, ask students to think for a minute about the many careers in each path. If they were counting, which career path would have the most occupations? What causes the difference in numbers of occupations in each Career Path?

5. Tell students to write the names of the two careers their group identified in the header row (row one) of columns 2 and 3 of the activity sheet Career Graphic Organizer. Each group will complete the 2nd and 3rd columns of the graphic organizer for roles, responsibilities, skills of the two careers. Training/Education will be discussed in

2. Students actively engage in the conversation about the meanings of the terms compare, contrast, and compare and contrast.

3. Students answer the questions.

4. When groups receive their assigned career paths (2 per group) group members will identify one career to explore in each of those career paths.

5. Students will add information to complete the roles, responsibilities, skills rows for the 2nd and 3rd columns of the activity sheet.

<td>6. After identifying and listing the roles, responsibilities, and skills in the appropriate rows on the activity sheet, students will study the data and identify similarities and differences between the two careers in roles, responsibilities, and skills.</td>
<td>6. In the 4th and 5th columns, students will identify and list the similarities and differences between the careers.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Collect the graphic organizers and save for the next lesson. Close this lesson by reminding students that during the second lesson, they will be completing their career graphic organizers.</td>
<td>7. Students give their group’s graphic organizers to counselor.</td>

COUNSELOR RESOURCE: CAREER PATH STRIPS (MASTER COPY)
Cut apart the Career Path strips. Give one “career strip” to each small group. Group members will generate the names of more occupations than are suggested on the “career strip.” They will write or represent occupations through pictures on the poster board chart and then write skills, knowledge or concepts they are currently learning (or have learned in the past) to go with each occupation. Encourage students to think beyond “arithmetic” or “reading” to the application of their current learning. For example, a newspaper editor has to be able to read for detail to determine if a story will make sense to the reader.
