Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will turn negative thoughts into positive thoughts.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Question: How do our thoughts and feelings affect how we handle various situations?

Engagement (Hook): Read a story that deals with positive and/or negative thinking.
 Suggestion: Books, such as Fortunately by Remy Charlie or Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day! by Judith Viorst

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:	Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:
1. Read story and field questions about how negative thoughts and feelings were changed to positive ones.	1. After hearing the story, students will review how the characters changed negative views into positive views and brainstorm ideas to change negative thoughts and feelings to positive ones.
2. Divide class into small groups and explain they will be asked to change something negative into something positive.	2. Students divide into small groups.
3. Hand each small group a skit ticket and have them create a short skit to perform in front of the class.	3. Students will create a short skit using the ideas from their skit tickets. Students will perform their short skits.
4. After each skit, discuss the ideas they used to change the situation from negative to positive.	4. In closing, students will answer questions the class/instructor has about their skit.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

When the teacher notices a negative comment or behavior, students will be asked to reframe it into something positive.
