 Students will identify their own culture’s customs and those of others.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What happens when people respect differences in others?

Engagement (Hook): Counselor mentions a recent celebration in his/her family and their special customs for the event. Present photos and/or other artifacts of the event.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:	Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> The counselor begins by telling the class about a recent celebration event in his/her family (wedding, anniversary, birthday, holiday, etc.) and shares a special family custom for the event, such as the birthday person eating from a special plate, or a special food that is served for the occasion. The counselor asks students to share some special occasions/events observed by their families/neighborhoods, and special activities/traditions connected with the event (wedding customs, etc.). The counselor leads a discussion including the various customs, and relates them as part of the students’ family culture. Counselor expands the discussion to include community, state, and/or national events and customs (fireworks on Independence Day, turkey for 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Students listen. Students volunteer to tell about special occasions/events and customs. Students participate in discussion. Students continue to participate in discussion.

Thanksgiving, etc.). 5.
