Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:

The student will work collaboratively with classmates to review the classroom schedule and select a time for a party.
The student will work collaboratively to identify at least two behaviors expected at a classroom party.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
Students work as team members to review their classroom schedule.
Students will decide what their classroom party schedule should be taking into account their lunch, specials, and recess times.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
Why is it important for people to have a daily plan?

Engagement (Hook):
Counselor walks in the classroom and says, “Please raise your hand if you would you like to have a party.”
Counselor says, “Now, raise your hand if you would you like to help plan the party.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:
1. Counselor asks, “What do we need to think about for the party?”
2. Counselor says, “Most of you forgot to think about the time and how our classroom schedule affects the time we can have the party.
3. Counselor then asks the students, “When do you have specials, lunch, and recess?”

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:
1. Students will give their input (probably like food, movie, etc.)
2. Students are thinking about what the counselor is saying.
3. Students respond by giving the time of day that they have these three activities during the school day.
4. Counselor then reminds students how important it is to schedule a classroom party around these activities because we don’t want to interfere with other people’s schedules.

5. Counselor asks, “Based on your classroom schedule, would it be better to have the party in the morning or the afternoon?”

6. Counselor then asks, “What behaviors do you need to show in order to participate in the party?”

7. Counselor tells students that they can now make party invitations for their next classroom party (i.e. Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Birthdays).

8. Counselor then tells students to remember next time your teacher has a party that she/he had to take into account your classroom schedule. Counselor also reminds students that they need their behavior to be appropriate in order to participate in this activity.

4. Students listen to the counselor.

5. Students hopefully take into account their classroom schedule that was just discussed in order to pick the right time for their party.

6. Students respond with comments like respectful, responsible, (i.e. displaying the core virtues).

7. Students make party invitations to remind themselves of their next classroom party.

8. Students listen to counselor.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities
Teacher reminds students of the class schedule when she/he announces that their class is having their next party. Teacher frequently talks about the classroom schedule with the students.
