Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:

The student will identify five components that are found on a personal plan of study. The student will develop a list of activities and life experiences, then match activities and life experiences to components of a personal plan of study.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc. The student will separate life experiences into the Personal Plan of Study components.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

What types of life experiences have you had? What do you still need to learn?

Engagement (Hook):

Display a sample Personal Plan of Study. Review and have students point out the vocabulary words learned during lesson 1.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:

1. Divide students into groups of 5 and have them move with their group to an area of the room. Give each group sticky notes of the same color (e.g. group 1 = red, group 2 = blue).

2. Say, “On the sticky notes write the activities or life experiences you have had, and a character or work trait each demonstrates.” You may need to give an example or two to

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:

1. Students will take a pencil to the group with them.

2. Students write experiences they have had and the character or work trait that goes with it. Write only one experience or activity on the sticky note at a time.
stimulate discussion, but do not give more than one or two samples. (Examples: raking leaves for a neighbor shows the character or work trait of volunteerism, thoughtfulness; Student Council class representative shows the character or work trait of team player, leadership).

3. Explain the seven posters highlighting the components of a Personal Plan of Study that are around the room. Distribute the smaller pages for the components to each group. Have students discuss their experiences and place their sticky notes on the correct component sheet.

4. Have one group at a time place their sticky notes on the most appropriate component page. (Example: raking leaves placed on “Volunteer/Community Service”; Student Council Rep on “Organizations” or “Extra Curricular Activities”).

5. Discuss placement of activities in respective categories.
