Lesson Preparation
Essential Questions:
Why are certain skills necessary for a person to be successful at certain jobs?
Engagement (Hook): “Teacher Interview”
Ahead of time, ask the classroom teacher (or some other staff member) to participate in the “hook.” In front of the class, remind the students that you have been talking about career paths. Ask the teacher what subjects/skills she/he learned in elementary schools that have helped him/her to become a good teacher. The teacher will briefly discuss the pertinent subjects/skills. Ask students what career path a “teacher” fits. Thank the teacher for his/her participation, and go on with the lesson.

Procedures
Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:
1. After the “hook”, the counselor will remind the students that they are on their path to a career, saying, “When did you start your career path/journey? What skills and subjects are you learning now or have learned previously to help you with your career path/journey?” The counselor will record answers on board, flip chart, or other visual media.
2. The counselor will review the Career Path Mini Poster with the students and instruct students to select subjects/skills from the list generated by the students in step 1 and identify the career path they think these skills/subjects belong in. Make the point that these subjects/skills can fit in many of

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:
1. Students will respond that they started their path to a career in preschool or kindergarten. Students respond with ideas using board, flip chart or other visual media.
2. Students will volunteer ideas. (reading – teacher, math – banker, music – singer, physical education – sports announcer, writing - journalist)
3. The counselor will pass out the activity sheet, Connecting School Skills to the Career Paths, and read the instructions.

4. When the students have finished, the counselor will facilitate students’ self-assessment of their work making sure they addressed each career path.

5. The counselor will conclude the lesson by asking the students to state one new idea they learned about how school subjects/skills relate to career paths.
