Essential Questions:
What makes a good helper?

Engagement: (Hook) Counselor and another adult staff member engage in a role playing situation to show the differences between appropriate interviewing behavior and behavior that will not lead to being hired.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:
1. Counselor engages in a brainstorming activity in which classroom jobs are written on the dry erase board/SMART board/other visual display. The instructor will erase one of the jobs and discuss what would happen if someone quit and there was one else to do that job. What would the consequences for the classroom be?
2. The counselor divides the class into small groups. Group roles are reviewed and assigned.
3. The counselor assigns each group one of the classroom jobs from the brainstormed list on the board. The students are asked to come up with personal and work habit skills that would be important to have when assigned this job.
4. The counselor gives the class time to work and informs them that they will be sharing their ideas.

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:
1. The students brainstorm, listing classroom jobs such as: line leader, board eraser, paper passer, etc.
2. Students move into groups and participate in review of group roles.
3. The recorder is assigned to write down group answers on a blank piece of paper.
4. A group leader is asked to share the ideas for each job that the group came up with.
| 5. The counselor will hand out the Classroom Helper Job Application Activity Sheet and instruct the students to apply for one of the jobs listed on the board by completing the application. | 5. Students will use their knowledge about personal, ethical and work habit skills to complete the Classroom Helper Job Application Activity Sheet. |
