Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:
The student will identify one personal family tradition.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):
Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
Students will discuss the school and family traditions that he/she takes part in.
Student will complete Family Tradition worksheet accurately.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: Why is respect for others important?

Engagement (Hook): Counselor will show and, as appropriate, pass around the symbol(s) of a family tradition he or she brought to the class.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:
1. After all students have had a chance to look at the symbol(s), the counselor will ask students to hypothesize about the meaning of the chosen symbol(s). When students have had an opportunity to make a number of guesses, the counselor will tell students the story of the meaning of the symbol(s) in his or her family.

2. Counselor will ask students to explain what tradition means and then help define it for them (i.e. custom, ritual, habit, practice). Counselor will ask the students to name traditions that happen in their school.

3. Counselor will share with students some traditions in which his or her family participates in.

4. Counselor will ask students to think of

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:
1. Students will offer their ideas about the meaning of the symbol.

2. Students will raise their hands and share what they think tradition means. Students will also share what traditions that they see in their school.

3. Students will share traditions that exist in their family.

4. Students will share traditions that their some traditions that exist in his or her family. Counselor will then get students to focus on some family traditions that they have during the winter. Counselor will then discuss Ramadan, Christmas, Hanukkah, and Kwanzaa. Some families based on their religious beliefs do not participate in any celebrations during the winter months, which is their tradition.

5. Counselor will hand out Family Traditions worksheets and go over the directions with the students.

5. Students will cut out pictures and paste them under the appropriate heading.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher may do a writing activity with the students using Family Traditions as a prompt.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)
FAMILY TRADITIONS

Different families have different traditions. Some families traditionally celebrate one of the following holidays during the winter months.
