Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:

The student will review and revise his/her Personal Plans of Study, noting changes in career interests and goals since last review was conducted.
 The student will identify at least two personal, educational and/or training requirements needed for his/her career choice.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will list education, training requirements, and a minimum of four personal characteristics for their current job of choice and for self. Students will list the education, training, and personal characteristics for jobs in the left-hand section; the education, training and their personal characteristics in the right-hand section; and the education, training and personal characteristics that appear in both in the center section of the Venn Diagram.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
 Why is it important that individual characteristics fit with characteristics needed for life career goals?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor example. How do my (counselor) educational goals, training goals, and personal characteristics compare with those of my career? Counselor will model development of Venn Diagram on whiteboard via personal example.
