Lesson Measurable Objectives:
The student will list at least three reasons jobs and workers are important in the community.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):
Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
Work Sample: Each student will write a friendly letter to a community worker expressing appreciation for the work they do and their importance to the community.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
What would our community look like if there were no people to do the jobs?

Engagement (Hook):
Show the class two contrasting pictures. One picture shows a polluted street and one with a clean street. Ask the students if they can name the community worker that is not doing his/her job well.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:

1. After the “hook,” the counselor will instruct students to generate a list of important jobs in their community. Counselor will record answers.

2. Counselor will facilitate a discussion on the importance of each job (listed) to the community. The counselor will erase one job and discuss what would happen if this job didn’t exist in the community.

3. Counselors will facilitate a discussion of why it is important that all workers know how valuable their work is to the community.

4. The counselor will review the elements of friendly letters. Students will write a thank you letter to one of the workers they

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:

1. Students will list jobs.

2. Students will offer ideas.

3. Students will participate in discussion.

4. Students will choose a worker/job and write a thank you letter.
job list. The letter will also explain why the job is so important to the community. The counselor may need to lead a discussion about what words of appreciation might be included in a thank you letter. (See Thank You for Helping our Community activity sheet.)

5. The counselor will instruct students on how to mail the letter. The counselor will have a phone book in the room for students to look up addresses. An example of how to complete an envelope will be available to the students. Counselor will arrange for cost of postage and arrange for mailing letters.

5. Students will address envelopes.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

If community workers respond to thank you letters, the teacher will share letters with the class. This would be a good time to invite a postal carrier to talk with students about his or her job.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)
Thank You for Helping Our Community!
