Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:

The student will demonstrate at least three effective resolve interpersonal skills which could resolve a conflict.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
Student will complete a conflict resolution activity sheet and role-play how to use interpersonal skills to resolve a conflict.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does a quality relationship look like and how is it maintained?

Engagement (Hook): Ask for two volunteers who will act out an example of a conflict created by the counselor. Volunteer stands on a set of footprint cut-outs. Students act out conflict scenarios. Students switch places and discuss how it feels from the other person’s point of view.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:

1. Distribute activity sheet and read it aloud with the students. Ask the students if anything similar has ever happened to them. Ask how many have been the Stan, the Jack and the Julie.
2. Take one character section at a time and ask the students to place themselves in each character’s position as they respond to the questions. Students should be reminded to answer honestly.
3. Ask students to turn to a neighbor and share

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:

1. Students will listen to the story and interact with the instructor as he/she asks questions related to the story.
2. Students will write an honest response appropriate to each character’s situation.
3. Students will turn to a neighbor and discuss their answers. Write on the board: Would one person’s answer get a better response? What can you learn from the other person? What would you not do if this were you? what they wrote down as responses. They will orally answer the questions that are asked by the instructor.

4. Have the students get into groups of three and brainstorm a list of interpersonal skills that will be useful in the situation. Then have them role-play the story using at least three of those identified skills. The goal is to get a resolution without aggressive language or behavior.

4. Students will brainstorm and then role-play the scenario practicing appropriate interpersonal skills to resolve the conflict. Students will assess their role-play and the outcomes with the instructor.

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

Teacher can positively reinforce the identified appropriate interpersonal skills in the weeks that follow.
