Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:

The student will demonstrate at least three effective resolve interpersonal skills which could resolve a conflict.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE.

Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

Student will complete a conflict resolution activity sheet and role-play how to use interpersonal skills to resolve a conflict.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions: What does a quality relationship look like and how is it maintained?

Engagement (Hook): Ask for two volunteers who will act out an example of a conflict created by the counselor. Volunteer stands on a set of footprint cut-outs. Students act out conflict scenarios. Students switch places and discuss how it feels from the other person’s point of view.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)

I Heard What You Did This Summer.....

Jack and Julie have been dating for six months. Jack heard from his best friend, Stan, that Julie was seen at the mall this past Saturday by Ken going into the movies with Michael. They were holding hands.

You are Stan.

1. Is it appropriate for you to share your information with Jack? _____

2. Why or why not?

3. How will your decision help your relationship with Jack?

4. What interpersonal skills will you be using?

You are Jack.

1. If Stan shares his information with you, what interpersonal skills will you need to use?

2. Which skills might you find difficult to use?

3. How do you handle the situation with Julie?

4. How much do you really know about the situation?

You are Julie.

1. If Jack questions you, what interpersonal skills will you need to use?

2. If Jack does not believe your answer, how can you handle that?

Write a dialogue from Stan to Jack. The dialogue should focus on maintaining a relationship with Jack.
