JOIN LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

As a member of this year-long academy, learning will be focused on improvement of leadership performance as articulated in Missouri's Leader Standards and Quality Indicators. Leadership Academy emphasizes the importance of building capacity of instructional practices correlated to high academic achievement for students. Leadership Academy develops effective leaders who:

- Demonstrate their roles as lead learners.
- Develop and cultivate positive, productive professional relationships.
- Develop skills to effectively develop teachers.
- Create and sustain a culture of continuous improvement.

Ensuring the Success of all Students by Building Leadership Capacity

Concepts include:

- Lead Learner. Effective leaders demonstrate their role as lead learners.
- Professional Relationships. Effective leaders develop and cultivate positive, productive professional relationships.
- Teacher Development. Effective leaders develop skills to effectively develop teachers.
- Continuous Improvement. Effective leaders create and sustain a culture of continuous improvement.

These align with the Missouri Learning Standards.

Leadership Academy Kickoff Speakers

What Great Principals Do Differently: 15 Things That Matter Most

This workshop will focus on 15 things that the most successful principals do that other principals do not. Participants will leave knowing what great principals do differently, why these things make them more effective, and how to immediately implement each of these practices into their schools.

Todd Whitaker, Ph.D., is a graduate of the Leadership Academy, a former Missouri educator, and a professor of educational leadership at Indiana State University in Terre Haute, Indiana.

Transforming School Culture: Exploring Effective Principal Leadership

Explore root causes of staff resistance to change and leave with concrete strategies to improve school culture and lay the foundation for a powerful learning environment. Dr. Cruz has developed the strategies necessary to address staff cohesion issues and maximize human potential in schools and districts.

Luis F. Cruz, Ph.D., was a former principal at Baldwin Park High School in California, and a teacher and administrator at elementary, middle and high school levels.

Past Leadership Academy Speakers Include:

Mike Rutherford, Meaningful Feedback • Ken Williams, Promoting a Culture of Trust • Jim Kern, Build the Fort Today
