“What’s Your Plan – Exploring the 16 Career Clusters”

CALEB: Hi, I'm Caleb.

LEAH: And I'm Leah. Welcome to "What's Your Plan?" Today, we'll help you plan for your future by exploring the 16 Career Clusters.

CALEB: Right! Wait. What's a Career Cluster?

LEAH: Career Clusters are just a way to organize the thousands of different careers out there.

CALEB: I knew that.

LEAH: So you can prepare for a career in an area that interests you. Because everyone knows, without a plan, . . .

CALEB: . . .You're... planless?

LEAH: Exactly. But first things first. You may remember learning about the 6 Career Paths. And if you're on top of things, like Caleb here...Caleb!...you've already chosen your Career Path. Right Caleb?

CALEB: Riiiiight. I choose the path of least resistance.

LEAH: Well, most of us have chosen a path that interests us: Health Sciences; Industrial and Engineering Technology; Human Services; Agriculture Food & Natural Resources; Business Management and Technology; or Arts and Communication. Now, it's time to move on to plan on a specific Career Cluster. Let's spin the wheel to see which of our sixteen Career Clusters we'll explore first.

CALEB: Big money, big money...

LEAH: And here we go...
