Dear Conduct & investigations,

I guess I will start with the retail theft I decided that I was going to steal some CD's one night and I got caught, I was put on probation and had to pay court costs. A little over a year later I thought it would be a good idea to try and see if I could get away with forging one of my parents checks to my self I needed some gas money. I did and the bank cashed the check no problem so I cashed six more totaling around $1700.00, to be honest I can not even remember what I bought food, clothes, and gas I did not even realize how much I had taken. I went on about my life started working I was staying with a friend and was considering enlisting in the Army. I lost my place to stay and my job so I broke into my parents home and slept there one night, the next night I was at a gas station on a pay phone talking to a friend and a police officer pulled in behind me I was arrested there. I sat in jail for three months awaiting trial my girlfriend was pregnant and they offered me a deal that I plead guilty to three felonies I would do one year periodic imprisonment. I served about nine months in jail upon my release I was placed on two years probation and ordered to pay $2500.00 in restitution which I did and then I enlisted in the United States Navy got out went to college got a B.S. In Criminal Justice and six months after that I got a position with Missouri Division of Youth Services. This is why I need a substitute certificate I work at a treatment center for teens which is a 24 hour treatment center, the youth go to school there year round and when teachers are out the Youth Specialists are there, and in order for the youth to get credit we need to be certified.

RE: ROY PRIFOGLER'S APPLICATION FOR MISSOURI SUBSTITUTE TEACHING CERTIFICATE

This letter offers my complete support of Roy Prifogle as he applies for a substitute teaching certificate. Roy has been employed with the Missouri Division of Youth Services since November 2012. I have been Roy's direct supervisor since that time.

Roy was very up front with us as we looked into hiring him initially, in regards to a felony he had received when he was a teenager. Luckily this line of work is all about giving teenagers opportunities to make better choices for their future. Because Roy was so up front, honest and looked at this as a learning opportunity, we were able to hire him upon completion of an extensive background check.

Roy serves as a youth specialist and one of the expectations of that job title is being able to serve as a substitute teacher. We are a residential facility with 24/7/365 eyes on supervision. We offer school year-round which gives youth opportunities to catch up classes they were missing before coming to us. We have 3 certified teachers on staff here as well as 2 teams of youth specialists that serve in substitute teaching roles when teachers aren't present.

I have seen Roy excel in his work with the youth we serve. He is very diligent about getting his work done, very creative in regards to activities for the youth including teaching them from his experience in the military. Roy has been very ambitious about his learning and growing ever since he has been with DYS and is currently looking to expand his skill set.

Based on these interactions, over the last four years I have come to see Roy as a bright, personable, energetic, and mature person with a concrete, ongoing, well-rooted interest in teaching the youth we serve. Roy shows an unflinching commitment to achieving his goals while developing himself as a person.

In short, it is clear to me that Roy Prifogle is and will continue to be devoted to becoming the best kind of educator. His background and work ethic remind me very much of my own, and I respect what he has done and will do as a teacher. Thus, I recommend him highly.

Sincerely yours,
