

What does student success look like to you?

- When students are able to critically think for themselves.
- When students take initiative and responsibility for own learning.
- Ability to communicate and work with others
- Individual student achievement
- Technology-literate
- Problem-solve in real-world situations
- Students feel prepared to make educated decisions on life choices based on preparedness from school
- Students finding self-worth and potential

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

- Teach to take responsibility for themselves
- Model, model, model! → show them how to become prepared
- implement 21st century skills
- Expose them to a variety of opportunities that are available post-graduation
- Be involved in the community - make connections

*How do we merge 21st century skills with competencies?

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- Student testimonials
- Well-rounded ^(Better effectiveness)
- Growth shown based on surveys, achievement reports, crime reports, poverty rates, etc.
- People want to move into the community!
- They want to get involved/get back in the community/schools to make their own impact

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

- Preparing students to find success, feel the success from within, and continue to foster their own success once they leave our walls.
- Equip students for their self-selected future!
- Students' happiness as adults, becoming a responsible adult
- develop skills/competencies, including critical thinking, to be involved in society and fight injustice.

◦ Society kind of shows us how successful our students are ◦ Take your education and then build upon it

- Growth-making improvements and seeing success
- MSIP 5 really looks at how students are doing academically as well as outside the classroom
- Character & grit matters but is harder to measure
- Teaching students to be curious so they are continually developing through school and beyond

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

- Need to know what is out there - properly sifting through choices and what to expect beyond high school
- Support, involvement & relationships
- Communities being honest w/kids - if we aren't honest with them they fail
- Figure out how to improve the family level to improve our product

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- Society shows how successful our students are - MO economic pieces - crime & communities
- See the percentage of students going to college & leaving after a year go down
- NOT really a way to measure this
- Looking at the measures of the quality of life in the state

◦ Do we see an increase on the value of education and those who deliver it
◦ We have a lot of paths to a quality education

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

Confidence! Options-prepared after school,
Work ethic, Perspective, Well rounded.
Goals Growth, Problem Solving. Mentally healthy in all aspects of school life. Grit- don't give up even if it isn't easy. Curiosity.

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Opportunities - support, background knowledge, exposure, ~~learning~~ learning is more than just for the classroom, support to a ^{larger} community, perseverance, and work ethic. Teach acceptance and leadership, so students can communicate.

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

Not just by tests for one. When they come back to the community and schools. ~~Jobs~~ Jobs, military, or vocational school. It is success because they did it. Photoparticipation.

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

Growth, developing life skills, life long learners, engagement, problem solving, belief in themselves, process (explain), making connections, self regulations, Ability to see both sides

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Develop ^{students} (them) as productive members of society. Giving students options (trade, college) Community come in to the school | Build the bridge. Engaging parents (K-12) Evidence Counselors Prepare their classes for their post-grad path of graduates that receive a certificate, degree, # are in the workforce. Students know where resources are to access help when confronted with challenges. How do we help students see their dreams? Having conversations about their dreams / Goals. Attendance ↑ ↓ mental health

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

Preparing students to successfully navigate society: confident, literate, can effectively communicate, happy

What does student success look like to you?

Students are engaged, excited, goal setting i.e.
7 Habits; Students demonstrating growth + demonstrating their own learning. Students are successful when they problem solve.
Students who can self advocate. Independent + creative thinking

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Internships + mentors for our students; early college courses/online → higher level classes.
Opportunity to experience work place environments like EMT, Nursing, culinary, etc.

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

Students do not have to take remedial classes at comm. and ^{4-year} colleges. How many students grad 2 + 4 yr institutions within appropriate time. Students selecting career training programs.

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

Every stdt learning every day
Family involvement + partnership
Preparing our stdts to be productive citizens
* Early college opportunities

① What does student success look like to you?

Characteristics - confidence w/ skill sets : students understand where they are at in meeting their goals - working to meet them : personalized learning preparing them for their future - compare what their future is to what it could be: 4 yr. schedules do not let students be flexible in their learning providing open doors., do we give pts the skill set to go to the next level our challenge - we don't know what they're going to do - what are the ② What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Start in early learning grades - elementary. all kids are held to the same standard. keep the growth mindset, focus on the kids in the middle levels. Even if you're on a different "track" rigor shouldn't change. I am here to support you. our mantra needs to be focused on student growth. Giving access to ap courses isn't

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

③

When the children of the students we have now come into our schools prepared for learning & success. Our students come back to let us know our success. What % is good enough. Thriving community is an indicator. Good citizenship. Did you make a difference for someone, in some way? Are you happy? What evidence are they showing that they've ④ From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

Student engagement, confidence w/ regard to task accomplishment, growth (both academic & personal), critical thinkers, readiness (College, career, work ethic), preparedness (diverse curriculum)

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Quality teaching staff, research-based curriculum, positive learning environment, integrated & collaborative curriculum, rigor & relevance, communication, we must help students believe in themselves, partnering (schools and businesses, higher ed, etc)

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

Survey student opinions regarding growth, continued discussions w/ business world & higher ed., critical & strategic discussions about data,

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

depends on the student	adaptability	ability to build better communities
to have options	prepared and balanced ability to be independent	empowered and autonomous	confidence
persistence/grit/work ethic	relevant options	learners who continue to learn

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

value and support schools	put quality teachers in front of every kid
start early (pre-school)	provide opportunities
allow for experiential learning	a brave view of the future of education foster partnership + collaboration	offer the right amount of challenge and struggle
collaborate across districts	focused on student opportunity

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- ask students
- use qualitative and quantitative data
- use assessment to inform schools / not to measure kids
- Marketshare / return customers
- employers want Missouri kids because they exemplify our traits in question #1.
- When excellence and equity are found in the same place.

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

#deseregional16

What does student success look like to you?

Fluency & Confidence prepared for life after school well-adjusted; eager to learn; being resourceful solid mental health support; perseverance problem-solving ability; "lifelong learner" know how to ask the right questions; 4Cs

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Self-Reflection & Goal Setting; Experiencing Failure
Understanding of job market expectations & Risk Taking Schools becoming more responsive & flexible to the changing times; Self-Regulation & Monitoring
Self-Advocacy; Financial Literacy; Educating Parents
Resourcefulness (knowing how & where) to establish a proper

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- Lower unemployment rates
- Higher graduation rates for underserved student populations
- increased enrollment in postsecondary or vocational pursuits (and complete degrees or Certifications)
- survey of H.S. graduates (What was your H.S. experience like, what are you doing now?)
- Business investment in the community. Better quality

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

Producing citizens that can work and thrive together

What does student success look like to you?

students ~~reaching~~ progressing towards & reaching individual goals; ~~and~~ ~~and~~ students wanting to learn; ^{being happy at school} students having the confidence in themselves.

or having attitude towards school because of relationship

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

identify students goals for future. Exposure to different areas + opportunity. Partners in education. Character traits. + soft skills. needed for any career.

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- what are students doing after grad
- are they prepared for their path
- prison rates

are they productive, citizens happy, contributions

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

- When learning growth happens at any level.
- When students reach goals. (academic & personal)
- When students enjoy learning.
- Being a productive member of society ^{during or} after graduating.
- If the student is better today than they were yesterday.
- It looks different for every child.

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

- Develop positive character traits and productive habits.
- ~~Productive struggle~~ Provide opportunities for productive struggle.
- ~~Motivate~~ Internally motivate students to strive for excellence.
- Growth mindset, teach kids a process versus just the curriculum ~~over~~ content.
- Teach them how to work on a collaborative team.

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- Decrease in crime rate & prison population.
- Increase in employment rate.
- Persistence in ~~college~~ college.
- When schools build a community of caregivers that do not allow students to fall through the cracks.
- Decrease in poverty.

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

desire to learn problem solving cooperation work ethic happiness coachable/teammate resiliency ability to adapt/willingness to adapt communication-written/verbal humility

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

adequate facilities + resources ~~attract~~ *attract, recruit, retain choices to explore the best ~~people~~ safe, positive climate/cultural be engaged challenge them

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

① employability skills, self-sufficient, economy - (social welfare reduced) ~~error~~
contributor in community

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

They can cipher, patriotic, literate, problem solving, critical thinking ability to work together, Self-sufficient young adults College & career ready, ^(Grade) ability to collaborate, resourceful, dreamer of possibility, Achieving growth, life-long learners
Exposure to ~~the~~ the work

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Parent involvement
Parents getting students to school - Each grade level's goal = give next grade level better quality students - adaptable to change
- Exposure to different careers - fill in the gaps - Thought partners 4 states
Setting for career exploration - Support district financially & Support and legislation that supports school - catch kids who fall through
- Meet kids where they are - More intervention the kids -

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

Motivation to succeed
Being prepared for their future
Confidence in their abilities? to make wise decisions
Making school active and engaging

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Attract quality ^{educators} teachers and remove less motivated
Increased job skill / career readiness courses
Strong community involvement (school family)
Exposure to job/education leaders/options

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- Data tracking systems for post high school activities (employment, certificate training)
- Referring to business leaders to understand how students are doing
- Reduced Poverty / incarceration rates

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

12 min 5 min sharing out

What does student success look like to you?

Beyond typical indicators - like attendance, test scores.
There is a wide scope. They want to continue learning.
Participate in society well. Not just access knowledge, but to apply that knowledge ~~of~~ in different ways. Be reflective of their own learning. Be collaborative ~~learners~~ learners.

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Ask students what they need. Ask higher ed, trade, businesses.
Teach students to ^{teach} self advocate, resiliency & perseverance. They need GRIT.
Must learn study skills. Fine leadership skills - both indiv & group.
Involve them in real world problems. Confidence to leave us.
Build by developing meta-cognition, reflective

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

Community indicators - higher ed, job growth. in all area codes.
Ultimate productive citizens.
Decrease in unemployment rates across all groups.
When we see them after they have graduated, do they think they are successful?

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

On grade level reading; Students with the grit; the desire for life-long learning; Students collaborating with one another; critical thinking, problem solving skills & actively engaged; must have the foundational skills before they can attain the higher level skills. Students setting & monitoring individual goals

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Exposure to real world entities/companies - more than a field trip. Measure individual student growth. Teaching soft skills

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

Looking at data - see them successful w/in community.
↳ poverty rates declining - Using student portfolios to show progression

Does the student have options or various pathways to choose from upon graduation? If yes, successful!

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

Invest in children as the greatest resource of society - greater than money, greater than materials, freedom to be the best version of themselves.

What does student success look like to you?

Lack of need for remediation, student feels confident because they have experienced success, all students have grown from the level they began, prepared for next level, how to THINK, life skills - able to be independent, awareness of the world.

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Understand stakeholder needs - Come together for common purpose, Career and College ready - provide students with tools so they can have options, internships, mentorships

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

Track students to determine data
Self-employment
Satisfaction

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

Able to advocate for themselves
Student who wants to go to school each day. Enthusiastic!
Life skills - necessary to be productive in society
Critical Thinking skills
Literacy from a young age. If you can read, you can learn.

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Mentors → Volunteering in schools
Businesses to engage w/ schools - Advocate for teachers and the importance of education.
Financial support for programs
Providing opportunities for community service hours and job mentoring

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

College entrance numbers
Successful when they move out!
Unemployment rates
Literacy programs - undesirable behaviors (early intervention)
Crime rates

Earning above minimum wage
Competitive on the job market
Strong sense of themselves
Standard of living, reduction in poverty, Educators continuing learning themselves, staying in the field.
Colleges that Missouri students are accepted to.

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

Producing young men and women who have a strong sense of honor and integrity.

STUDENT OR ADULT perspective
does it change?

→ DREAM ← Determine/Find/Succeed/Skills to chase dream

What does student success look like to you?

- Engagement in learning
- Literacy success
- Apply "school" knowledge to daily life
- Career Oriented @ grad.
- Building & using "life" skills
- Productive citizens
- Collaboration & working together - Competencies (#7-10)
- Students utilizes 21st century skills in all areas of life

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

- Freedom to problem solve - critical thinking in a safe environment
- Longer periods of time to collaborate and problem solve
- Teacher as facilitator
- "Just in time learning" - "Personalized learning" - "Untraditional/flexible"
- Standards based / Differentiated instruction
- Let go of what school looked like "traditional" - change culture

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- Student growth
- All of the children are well
- Portfolio of learning
- Benchmarking vs. single score
- ask graduates if they feel they are/were prepared for life.

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

- ~ Perform @ their best ability confidently. ~ When the student recognizes that they are successful. ~ Carry a sense of curiosity. ~ Socially supported/emotionally ~ Empowered by the experiences that they have at school/respected as individuals. Interested in doing new things & feel efficacious. ~ Skills to find things out (is it real) ~ Communication skills that transfer outside of the classroom CRITICAL THINKING (process information). ~ Knowing what it means to be a citizen/part of a community (sense of their roles/rights/responsibilities in the community) ~ Basic understanding of content

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

- ~ Open their doors for all children & community members ^{invite community members in / take children out to the community}
- ~ Having connections before ^{students} they leave HS ~ Shift away from kids being ready for school to school being ready for kids
- ~ Workforce expectations, teaching skills
- ~ Engage families in meaningful ways ~ mix of activities for families
- ~ Simulations - Hands-on Curriculum

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- ~ Consider what success looks like at different ^{points} past graduation ↳ changes in grad rates, unemployment → changes in state trends, voter registration ^{6 mos, 1 yr, 3 yrs, 5 yrs, etc.}
- ~ Following alumni
- ~ Feedback about employees from employers ~ trend changes
- ~ Decrease in remedial programs ~~at~~ in higher education

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

prepared for the next step, making gains at their level not held back - pushed, feeling safe, not feeling like a number - being a part, engaged, valued; inspired, confident to ask for help, support, work ethics

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

start transition planning earlier. Emersion in jobs to get a feel for the world of work. Difficulty of provide the opportunity to participate. Everyone has a place the problem is helping every student find that place

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

Qualitative over quantitative - quality of life
What's important to you

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

Career Ready, Progress toward Goals, Academic + Soft Skills
Attitude / Hunger for Learning, Work Ethic, Perseverance
Willingness to pursue Rigor, Lifelong Learning, Globally Competent Access to a broad Support System, Basic Needs Met Achieves ^{vs Capacity of their} Potential Regardless of what their potential

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

Foundational Skills - Strong, Develop programs that establish connections
after School, Relevance, Resourcefulness, Flexibility, Funding, ^{Risk to follow}
Cultural Growth, Building Partnerships, Develop Can-Do mentalities
Self-Reliance

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

Gainfully Employed, Productive Citizens, Economy of the State, Unemployment Rate, Collegiate Enrollment and Graduate rates for State Students, Professional Partnerships that gauge their workforce readiness, Decrease in Prison Population, Decrease Poverty Rate

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

growth beyond assessment -
helping students find their talents + passions community involvement problem solving w/ collaboration - promote critical thinking

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

* 21st Century Skills
Service above self - value of giving back
Resource-awareness - Collaboration
Situational awareness

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

track college, technical/trade schools, careers
ask the kids
measuring student growth through non-high stakes assessment contributions to community/society

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

What does student success look like to you?

- Confident to take on challenges and the unknown
- Owners of their own learning
- Well-rounded (not only academic)
- Culturally literate
- Active learner
- Intrinsically motivated
- Safe, emotionally
- Advocate available
- Skill set for knowing how to be resourceful
- Thinkers - not just memorize

What do school communities need to do to prepare students for success after graduation?

- Help them find and foster their passion
- Continually engage and invest in all of our kids
- Develop non-academic skills → work ethic, grit
- Support of physical and mental health for students and families
- Prepare for global world → open up possibilities

How will you know Missouri schools have been effective in preparing students for success after graduation?

- Number of students entering college/workforce
- Students contributing to society
- Students are independent, problem solvers
- Fewer students failing in college

From our discussion tonight, what matters most to you in public education? Please share your thoughts on next steps.

- Our current metrics for success ^(MAP) do not measure the success of a 21st century learner
- ↳ Next steps - Curriculum that builds in passion, learner agency, soft skills, real-world experiences
- Assessment - project-based, portfolios