

Technical Assistance Center on Social Emotional Intervention

www.challengingbehavior.org

On January 1, 2008, the Center for Evidence-Based Practice: Young Children with Challenging Behavior (CEBP) became the Technical Assistance Center on Social Emotional Intervention for Young Children, or TACSEI. TACSEI continues and expands of the work of CEBP by moving the extensive research CEBP conducted and synthesized on effective practices into actual, everyday practice. The result is that decision makers, caregivers and service providers have an enhanced awareness of, understanding of, and ability to use evidence-based practices to improve the social-emotional outcomes for young children with, or at risk for, delays or disabilities. The conceptual model TACSEI uses to deliver this important information is the widely endorsed Pyramid Model framework for promoting social-emotional competence and addressing challenging behavior.

What does TACSEI do?

Research Syntheses

Synthesizes and disseminates research findings on evidence-based models and practices for children and families served by IDEA

Partners

Maintains collaborative partnerships with national parent and professional organizations & TA providers

Consultant Bank

Coordinates a bank of consultants for providing training and consultation to programs, trainers/coaches and states

Model Demonstration Sites

Works in partnership with five programs currently adopting the Pyramid Model to document factors related to adoption, fidelity of implementation and sustainability

Technical Assistance

Provides technical assistance (TA) with specific emphasis on behavior and social/emotional development

TACSEI States

Provide intensive technical assistance and training to selected states to build the infrastructure and systems needed for the implementation of the Pyramid Model
