Organization/Purpose – 1-

- No discernable plot
- Attempt to establish characters “saitama” but without development
- Attempt to establish narrative “the day the world change” is undeveloped

Evidence/Elaboration – 1

- Characters are confusing
- Narrative techniques attempted are written as one paragraph making it nearly impossible to discern the speaker
- Narrative techniques attempted are irrelevant. In the first paragraph a character saves the earth and the story ends with “night mom dad”

Conventions – 0

- Density of errors—multitude of errors throughout the short essay
