This “Information Resource Manual” is designed to provide an overview of essential information relating to Missouri DECA. Additional information regarding many of the topics addressed can be obtained through supplemental resources such as the international (www.deca.org) and state association (<http://dese.mo.gov/careered/deca.htm>) websites, the annual “DECA Guide,” and the “Missouri DECA Policy Manual.” For more information, consult the Missouri DECA State Advisor.

General Information

DECA Descriptor

DECA prepares emerging leaders and entrepreneurs for careers in marketing, finance, hospitality and management in high schools and colleges around the globe.

DECA enhances the co-curricular education of members through a comprehensive learning program that integrates into classroom instruction, applies learning, connects to business and promotes competition.

DECA's activities assist in the development of academically prepared, community oriented, professionally responsible, experienced leaders.

DECA Inc. is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit student organization with more than 200,000 members in all 50 U.S. states, the District of Columbia, Canada, China, Germany, Guam, Hong Kong, Korea, Mexico and Puerto Rico. The United States Congress, The United States Department of Education and state, district and international departments of education authorize DECA's programs.

Formation of National DECA

The first interstate conference occurred in Memphis, Tennessee, in 1947 where the first national officer team was elected.

National Headquarters

Located in Reston, Virginia – Opened in 1976
Missouri DECA contributed $10,000 to the opening of the headquarters and was recognized with a Missouri Room.

Charter States

Missouri was one of 17 states which adopted the National constitution and the official name in 1948.

National Membership

More than 250,000 members in all 50 U.S. states, the District of Columbia, Canada, China, Germany, Guam, Hong Kong, Korea, Mexico and Puerto Rico.

Missouri DECA Eligibility

Students must be currently enrolled in a marketing or cooperative education course in order to hold membership in DECA. In addition, students enrolled in other courses taught by a certified marketing teacher currently teaching at least one approved marketing course and serving as a DECA advisor also are eligible for DECA membership. The course content must align with a state-approved DECA competitive event for the student to be eligible for membership. Year long or semester course enrollment satisfies the concurrent enrollment issue.

Advisors

Adults charged with the responsibilities for giving guidance to the chapter and state associations.

Delegates

The term which refers to any DECA member, including Advisors, attending DECA approved activities.

Organizational Structure

DECA Incorporated

The legal identity of the adult group responsible for DECA.

Chapter Level

- Marketing Education students and Cooperative Education students make up the school chapter of DECA (not referred to as a “club”).
- Chapters elect student officers for local leadership positions.
- Chapter members participate in school and community-based projects.

State Association Level

- Chapter members join the State Association of DECA.
- Representatives of local chapters (students and advisors) provide recommendations for the State Association of DECA.
- Chapter members run for state office at an annual election conference. State Officers provide leadership for the organization.
- One or more designated individuals serve as the State Advisor(s) of the Missouri Association of DECA. They provide leadership and coordination of state-level activities and programs.
- Five local chapter advisors comprise the Missouri DECA Board of Directors.
- Outstanding chapter members represent their chapters in state-sponsored activities, competitive events, and leadership/career development events.

Regional Association Level

- State and Provincial Associations comprise four regions: Western, Central, Southern, North Atlantic.
- Each region has 13 or more State/Provincial Associations.
- Missouri is one of 13 associations in the Central Region.
- The State Advisors from each Central Region association comprise the Central Region Board of Governors.
- One state in the Central Region serves as the host state for the annual Central Region Leadership Conference to promote leadership development activities, introduce competitive events and provide a forum for industry topics.

International Association Level

- Local chapter and state association members join National DECA.
- Representatives of State Associations provide recommendations regarding National DECA activities.
- DECA Inc. Board of Directors: Members are elected from DECA Inc. for a three-year term of office. The Board sets policies and guidelines and adopts a long-range plan for DECA's development and growth.
- Executive Director of DECA Inc.: Paul Wardinski receives direction from the Board of Directors.
- All other national staff are employed by and responsible to the Executive Director.
- Outstanding state members represent their State Association at the annual International DECA Career Development Conference.
- National officers, elected by voting delegates from the State Associations, serve as the elected student leaders of National DECA.

Divisions of DECA

High School Division

The largest division of DECA; membership is available to high school students enrolled in Marketing and Cooperative Education classes.

Collegiate Division

Division offering membership to students enrolled in post-secondary institutions studying marketing, management, and related business fields. This division offers members the opportunity to develop personally and professionally through chapter activities, individual projects, and a competitive events program.

Alumni Division

Support division to provide a means by which Marketing Education students can maintain an association with DECA; encourage support for DECA on the local, state and/or national level; and promote the purposes of DECA.

Professional Division

Career Clusters

Career Clusters provide a way for schools to organize instruction and student experiences around 16 broad categories that encompass virtually all occupations from entry through professional levels. These groupings of occupations are used as an organizing tool for curriculum design, a model for guidance and instruction, and a mechanism for seamless transition from secondary education to postsecondary and/or career.

The career clusters relating to the marketing education curriculum are:

- Marketing
- Business Management and Administration
- Finance
- Hospitality and Tourism

Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act

The Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act (Perkins) was most recently reauthorized in August 2006. The purpose of Perkins is to provide individuals with the academic and technical skills needed to succeed in a knowledge- and skills-based economy through career and technical education. Perkins also focuses on documenting the rigor of academic and technical courses, improving curriculum alignment among secondary and postsecondary schools, and streamlining the transition process for students moving from one level to another. Under the law, Missouri receives about $22.4 million per year in federal funds to support career and technical education programs across the state.

CTSO

Career and Technical Student Organization (i.e., DECA, FFA, FCCLA, FBLA, SkillsUSA, etc.)

NCCCTSO

National Coordinating Council for Career and Technical Student Organizations. The council identifies and coordinates activities that are mutually beneficial to career and technical student organizations and their numbers. They share information that will enhance the development of career and technical education students, and to strengthen career and technical education.
