Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:

The student will identify nine goals for middle school by completing one “Plan of Action” activity sheet.
The student will develop a plan of action for one goal to accomplish prior to transitioning to middle school.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
Students will write and implement a plan of action for the future setting goals to be successful in school.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:
What does the word transition mean? Are you in transition? If so, how?

Engagement (Hook): Counselor begins lesson by sharing a memory of his/her elementary school years. The counselor will give the students a Transition to Middle School Activity Sheet. Students will complete the sheet with the guidance of the school counselor.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:

Note: Completing the activity sheet together will allow the counselor to assess the engagement of individual students.

1. The counselor asks the students to share their thoughts and concerns about transitioning to middle school from the Transition to Middle School activity sheet. Use the Transition to Middle School Instruction Sheet.

2. Counselor has students write any questions they might have about transitioning to

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:

1. Students reflect on the elementary school experience as well as their thoughts and concerns about transition to middle school.

2. Students write down any questions or concerns they might have at the bottom

Teacher Follow-Up Activities

The teacher will review the Transition to Middle School and Future Plan of Action activity sheets. Also, the counselor will continue to reinforce skills needed to transition to middle school.

Counselor reflection notes (completed after the lesson)
TRANSITION TO MIDDLE SCHOOL
INSTRUCTION SHEET

Developed by: Carolyn Magnuson

As each section is completed, prompt students to talk with a partner or larger group. The counselor will use dry erase board/SmartBoard/other visual display during the lesson to collect ideas. The ideas generated will be saved for the teacher to use in the future, or for the counselor to use during the next session.

Section 1: Special memories are those that stand out from the rest...they include memories of adults and peers, as well as events (e.g. field trips, honors). Share with a partner, and then with the larger group (if you feel comfortable doing so). The process continues until all students who want to share have had an opportunity to share a memory.

Section 2: Thoughts about transition to middle school... Getting ready for something new brings mixed feelings. We are excited about new opportunities and worried or anxious about the unknown and/or not knowing what to do (e.g. getting lost between classes, larger school). After writing positive thoughts and concerns about transition to middle school share thoughts with your partner. Also, share thoughts with the larger group and develop a list of mutual positive thoughts and concerns using dry erase board/SmartBoard/other visual display. Discuss common concerns. Some students may want to write a question or concern in Section 6 to discuss further with middle school counselors.

Section 3: Involvement - Middle school offers many opportunities for involvement in organizations/activities of interest. Have students share their ideas. If students aren’t aware of the activities offered, then encourage them to list questions to ask the middle school counselor(s) for more information.

Section 4: Friendship - Friends are treasures! Make sure the friends you choose are GENUINE TREASURES! When the qualities you seek have been written, share your ideas with the larger group. The counselor will record ideas using dry erase board/SmartBoard/other visual display ...

"Qualities I treasure in a friend." Discuss the challenges of making and keeping friends and the importance of choosing your friends wisely.

Section 5: Changes - Use these ideas when developing the Future Plan of Action activity sheet.

Section 6: Questions - Have students write questions on index cards to share when the middle school counselor(s) visits the classroom to talk about transition.

Section 7: 5th grade memories - Follow procedure suggested for large group sharing in #1.
