Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:

The student will identify and draw the four basic feelings.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLEs. Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.
 Students will draw the four basic feelings.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

- What are feelings?
- Why is it important to understand feelings?

Engagement (Hook):

Counselor explains that the class will be discussing feelings. There are 4 cards on the floor. With each card held up, the students will identify the feelings and demonstrate what that feeling looks like. Counselor participates with the group.

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:	Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:
1. Counselor tells students that today they will be talking about feelings. Each of the cards on the floor has one of the four feelings being talked about today.	1. Students are sitting in a circle on the floor.
2. Counselor randomly chooses a card, and shows it to the group. "Tell me the feeling that is on the card. Now, show me how your face would look if you were feeling this way."	2. Students respond accordingly.
3. "What are some reasons that you might feel this way?"	3. Students give examples.
4. "What are some different ways that a person might show this feeling?" (Counselor should focus discussion on appropriate ways of expressing the feelings.)	4. Students give examples.
5. Repeat steps 2-4 for each feeling.	5. Allow every student a chance to respond.

6. “Why is it important for us to express our feelings?” 7. Students will complete the Feelings worksheet. Counselor may need to lead the students in completion of the worksheet.	6. Students respond. 7. Students draw their responses.
