Lesson Measurable Learning Objectives:

The student will demonstrate how to change one inappropriate interpersonal skill into an appropriate one through role-play.

Lesson Formative Assessment (acceptable evidence):

Assessment should relate to the performance outcome for goals, objectives and GLE.
Assessment can be question answer, performance activity, etc.

In teams of 3, students will plan, present, and discuss scenarios in which they demonstrate inappropriate and appropriate interpersonal skills in a variety of social situations.

Lesson Preparation

Essential Questions:

In what ways does respect for self and others influence interpersonal relationships?

Engagement (Hook):

Pre-arrange for two students to become involved in a scene in which one student grabs another’s notebook and begins going through it making disparaging remarks. The owner of the notebook tries to grab it back. At this point, say something like “Hmmmm…seems you have lost some of your learning from last year.”

Procedures

Instructor Procedures/Instructional Strategies:

1. Review the 6th grade learning about interpersonal skills. Show the Recipe for Relationships and ask students to recall the ingredients. Ask what else they remember about the lesson? Strive for remembering of the missing ingredient demonstration.

2. Tell students that in this lesson, they will be expanding their knowledge and use of effective interpersonal skills. Group

Student Involvement/Instructional Activities:

1. Students will participate in the discussion. Every student will contribute something to the conversation.

2. Students will get into their teams and identify the social setting they will be dramatizing. Before they do anything else, students in teams of 3 and tell them that they will be working together to design a 2-minute scenario in which an individual behaves inappropriately in a social situation. You will assign the settings for the scenario.

3. Explain that after presenting the scenarios to the class, the student groups will lead a class discussion for the purpose of assessing the inappropriate/appropriate interpersonal skills displayed in the scenario. Each group should plan for, at least, 3 discussion questions. Allow 10-15 minutes for planning depending on the group and the time remaining, talk about how to lead a discussion (encourage note taking), and encourage open-ended questions. Teams work together to plan their discussion.

DAY 2 OF LESSON
This will be the day for the formative assessment, the presentation of the scenarios. See the Formative Assessment for directions.

3. Students will take notes about the key points of leading discussions and teams will decide on the starter questions to be asked.

DAY 2 OF LESSON
Students will use appropriate interpersonal skills as they perform and participate in discussions.
