Dear Ms. Cohen:

Ameren Missouri is proud to serve our diverse service territory and we are proud of our diverse communities and workforce. We understand the importance of education and champion all students that want to learn and grow. In fact, we often partner with local high schools on various development initiatives not only to help the students but also for the purpose of building a talent pool throughout our communities; it's a win-win for all. Awarding students with a Seal of Biliteracy on high school diplomas and documented on transcripts is a great way to encourage bilingual skills and to recognize years of hard work and commitment to excellence.

Ameren Missouri is fully supportive of the State of Missouri enacting this Seal of Biliteracy program for high school graduates. As our workforce evolves into this next generation of employees, a Seal of Biliteracy will play an important role in helping us provide a higher level of service to our valued customers. The ability to effectively communicate with all customers will help us achieve higher customer satisfaction and loyalty.

Best wishes and hats off to Mosaic Project for making St. Louis a great place to live and work.

Sincerely,
