

Graph the following.

$$f(x) = 2^x$$

$$f(x) = \frac{1}{2}x + 4$$

After graphing, explain where the exponential function exceeds the linear <sup>and why that is significant</sup>. Also explain why the exponential function increases at a much more drastic rate.