

Where is the error in this expression? $-6+3i-7 = -10i$

$(2-\sqrt{3})^2$ What is the first step you might take to begin ~~solving~~^{simplifying} this expression?

When simplifying $\frac{6+3i}{7-i}$ what might you use to begin and why should you begin with using this strategy?
