

Top 10 PLC Commitments

- Be purposeful in connecting families to resources and documenting those connections
- Record all high need characteristics for each high need family serves and update as needed
- Increase frequency of family personal visits
- Recruit and enroll more prenatal to three families
- Research the “You Pick Two” Essential Requirement on the Parents as Teachers National Center website
- Set a goal with every family at the beginning of the school year
- Inspect family files, program files and cumulative files for accuracy and completion
- Provide professional development information to PAT supervisor
- Collect, analyze and share PAT program data
- Compile monthly success stories