Grants Available to Support School Breakfast and Physical Activity

Does your school need a boost to increase participation in breakfast? Do you need funding to support adding more minutes of physical activity for your students?

Action for Healthy Kids is pleased to partner with CSX Transportation, Kellogg Company, and the Walmart Foundation to offer grants for the 2013-2014 school year to support such initiatives. Awards will be given to over 400 schools ranging from $1,000 to $5,000.

Applications are due April 19, 2013!
