

National Center for Homeless Education

Supporting the Education of Children and Youth Experiencing Homelessness

Homeless Education Listserv

The National Center for Homeless Education (NCHE) is a federally funded information and technical assistance center at SERVE Center at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG). NCHE hosts the Homeless Education Listserv to help administrators, educators, advocates, and service providers share information and ideas on meeting the educational needs of children and youth experiencing homelessness. The ideas on this listserv do not reflect the views of NCHE, SERVE, or UNCG. ALL LOBBYING ACTIVITIES ARE STRICTLY FORBIDDEN.

New NCHE Issue Brief | Serving Homeless Children and Youth in Charter Schools

Dear colleagues:

NCHE is pleased to announce the availability of a new issue brief entitled, Serving Homeless Children and Youth in Charter Schools. This brief summarizes McKinney-Vento Act mandates for school districts and schools, paying special attention to how certain principles in the Act would apply to charter schools. The brief also includes examples of specific states and charter schools that have implemented promising practices for serving homeless children and youth.

Download Serving Homeless Children and Youth in Charter Schools at <http://center.serve.org/nche/downloads/briefs/charter.pdf>.

Best,

Christina Dukes

National Center for Homeless Education At The SERVE Center University of North Carolina at Greensboro