

Level 1. The Trainee Degree

You will be completing a self-assessment to help you identify your learning style, learning about self-motivation, writing a few short-term goals and thinking about future occupations. You will also be learning about various cultures and life-styles as well as equity issues that exist in today's society.

In Level 1 you are asked to participate in a community project and also learn about the career you are considering. In addition, you will assess and improve your communication skills.
