

Level 2. The Leader Degree

In Level 2, you will modify your short-term goals. Learn how to identify and deal with sources of stress, apply team skills to a class project and demonstrate government awareness. You will also demonstrate professional business meeting skills, review a professional journal and develop a short speech, learn how to project a positive image and master the rules of social etiquette.

Level 2 will help you prepare for the world of professional employment by teaching you how to survey for employment opportunities, put together an employment portfolio and complete an employment application.
